

Tiscali: Clarification

Cagliari, 20 July 2010

Following press reports and upon Consob request, Tiscali informs that the escrow release process relating to the disposal of the English subsidiary is still ongoing. In fact, the procedure for the resolving dispute of the granted amount, whose information has been stated in the Annual Report 2009, brought to overrun the mechanism and timings of escrow release previously scheduled.

The company will issue a detailed and timely information to the market at the time of its definition.
