

Tiscali: No capital increase planned at the moment.

The company confirms that the only capital increase considered as of today is the one related to the equity-linked bonds due 2006 and that, therefore, the new shares would be issued only upon exercise of the conversion option by the bondholders.

PRESS RELEASE