

TISCALI NETHERLANDS FOCUSES ITS OFFER ON ULL ADSL PRODUCTS

Cagliari/Utrecht, July 26, 2005 – Tiscali Netherlands and KPN have reached an agreement for the transfer of more than 60.000 Tiscali ADSL retail subscribers to KPN for a total consideration of around 13 million Euro, effective by today. The agreement involves exclusively to those Tiscali Netherlands ADSL subscribers that are connected to the KPN network through a resellers contract between the two operators. Customers will not experience any change in services. Settings and conditions will remain identical.

This transfer is part of Tiscali's strategy to focus on the accelerated unbundling of the proprietary network allowing the company to offer competitive ADSL access products as well as innovative services to its ADSL subscribers.
