value equal to the subscriptions gathered by that date, with express authorisation of the administrators to issue new shares as they are subscribed.

Cash payments made by the shareholders to the Company by way of loan may be made within the legal limits:

- in the form of capital contribution with no right to repayment;
- in the form of interest bearing or non-interest bearing loan with natural right to repayment.

The share capital is pre-determined to achieve the corporate purpose and it may be increased even by way of contribution in kind and/or credits in accordance with the combined provision of Articles 2342, 2343 et seq of the Italian Civil Code.

The shareholders' meeting may resolve a reduction in the share capital, also by means of allocation to individual shareholders or groups of shareholders of specific corporate assets or shares or holdings in other companies, in which the Company has a joint investment. The shareholders' meeting may resolve an increase in the share capital pursuant to and within the limits as per Article 2441.4.2 of the Italian Civil Code, and assign the management body the faculty to increase the share capital as per Article 2443 of the Italian Civil Code.

Article 6

Calling of shareholders' meetings

Meetings are called by the management body at the registered offices or elsewhere, provided the location is in Italy, by means of publication - within the legal deadlines - of a notice on the Company's website and involving the other formalities envisaged by regulatory provisions. Those with the right to vote are entitled to examine all the documents deposited at the registered offices for shareholders' meetings already called and to obtain a copy thereof at their own expense.

Article 7

Ordinary and extraordinary shareholders' meetings

Ordinary meetings are called at least once a year, within 180 (one hundred and eighty) days of the end of the accounting period, for the approval of the financial statements, since the Company is obliged to draw up consolidated financial statements.

Meetings, both in ordinary and extraordinary session, if envisaged by the Board of Directors which calls the meeting, may be held in single calling and the related resolutions are valid if adopted with the presence and the majorities established by law for such cases.

- Article 8 -

Participation at shareholders' meetings

All those with the right to vote in accordance with the legislative provisions in force from time to time may take part in meetings. Those who are due the right to take part in meetings may arrange for themselves to be represented, in accordance with the law, by means of proxy which may be granted in writing or via electronic media, if envisaged by specific regulatory provisions and according to the formalities envisaged herein. The Company excludes the possibility of availing oneself of a party to whom the holders of the right to vote can grant power of attorney. The Chairman of the meeting is responsible for checking the right to take part in the meeting and the regularity of the proxies.

Meeting resolutions adopted in compliance with the law and these Articles of Association are binding even on dissenting shareholders.

- Article 9 -

Chair and holding of shareholders' meetings

Shareholders' meetings are chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or, in the absence of the latter by the Deputy Chairman, if appointed, or, in the absence of the latter, by an individual appointed by the shareholders' meeting.

The shareholders' meeting appoints a secretary, who does not necessarily have to be a shareholder, and also appoints, if this is deemed to be appropriate, two scrutineers from among the shareholders and the Statutory Auditors.

The resolutions of the shareholders' meeting are recorded in specific minutes signed by the Chairman, the secretary and any scrutineers.

In legal cases and each time it is deemed appropriate, the Chairman shall arrange for the minutes to be drawn up by a Notary.

- Article 10 -

Management of the Company

The management of the Company is entrusted to a Board of Directors made up of nine members and ensuring a balance between genders as per current legislation.

- Article 11 -

Board of Directors

The Board of Directors takes steps to appoint a Chairman and possibly a Deputy Chairman, choosing them from amongst its members, if the shareholders' meeting has not already done so.

The Directors remain in office for a three-year period or a shorter duration established by the meeting at the time of their appointment; they may be re-appointed.

The Directors are appointed by the meeting on the basis of lists presented by the shareholders. Each list shall contain a number of candidates equal to 9, listed by means of consecutive number.

Shareholders entitled to present lists shall be those who, alone or together with other shareholders, own, at the time of presentation of the lists, a shareholding representing at least 2.5% (two point five percent) of the share capital, subject to the provisions of applicable legislation.

Each shareholder may in any case present (or concur in presenting) and vote a single list (specifying that, for the purposes of the present article, the term "shareholder" jointly means the shareholder him/herself and the natural and legal persons who control, are controlled by or otherwise are subject to common control with the shareholder in question), also through a third party or through trust companies. Any support granted and votes cast in violation of this prohibition shall not be attributable to any list.

Each candidate may be present in only one list or be subject to ineligibility.

The lists presented by the shareholders must be deposited, as will also be indicated in the notice of calling, at the Company's registered offices by the twenty-fifth day prior to the date of the meeting called to resolve on the appointment of the Board members.

Each list must be accompanied by the information required by applicable legislation and indicate the identity of the shareholders who have presented the same and the total investment percentage owned. In-depth information on the personal and professional characteristics of the candidates must be provided at the bottom of the list presented by the shareholders, or attached to the same. The declarations by means of which the individual candidates accept their candidature and declare, at their own liability, the inexistence of causes of ineligibility or incompatibility as well as the existence of the requisites of good standing and professionalism prescribed for the office by applicable legislation and the Articles of Association, and any possession of the independence requisites established by current legislation, must be filed together with each list.

Each list must indicate a number of candidates who present the independence requisites established by applicable legislation in accordance therewith.

Each list must present a number of candidates belonging to the gender represented the least equal to the minimum number required by current legislation.

Lists presented without observing the above instructions, shall be considered as not presented.

The election of Directors proceeds as follows:

a.1) Regardless of the number of lists presented, subject to the limitations prescribed by these Articles of Association, for the purposes of the allocation of the directors to be elected shall not take into account the lists that have not received a percentage of votes at least equal to half the percentage required by these Articles of Association for the presentation of the lists themselves.

a.2) If only one list is presented, all 9 (nine) candidates thereof shall be elected.

a.3) If two or more lists are presented and none of them are voted by at least 34% (thirty-four percent) of the share capital, the candidates shall be allocated among the various lists as indicated below:

a.3.a) in the presence of two lists, the following candidates shall be elected: (i) the first 6 (six) candidates of the first list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (ii) the first 3 (three) candidates of the second list by number of votes cast by shareholders;

a.3.b) in the presence of three lists, the following candidates shall be elected: (i) the first 4 (four) candidates of the first list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (ii) the first 3 (three) candidates of the second list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (iii) the first 2 (two) candidates of the third list by number of votes cast by shareholders;

a.3.c) in the presence of four lists, the following candidates shall be elected: (i) the first 3 (three) candidates of the first list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (ii) the first 2 (two) candidates of the second list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (iii) the first 2 (two) candidates of the third list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (iv) the first 2 (two) candidates of the fourth list by number of votes cast by shareholders;

a.3.d) in the presence of five lists, the following candidates shall be elected: (i) the first 3 (three) candidates of the first list by number of votes cast by shareholders;

(ii) the first 2 (two) candidates of the second list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (iii) the first 2

(two) candidates of the third list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (iv) the first candidate of the fourth list by number of votes cast by shareholders;

(v) the first candidate of the fifth list by number of votes cast by shareholders;

a.3.e) in the presence of six or more lists, the following candidates shall be elected: (i) the first 3 (three) candidates of the first list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (ii) the first 2 (two) candidates of the second list by number of votes cast by shareholders;

(iii) the first candidate of the third list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (iv) the first candidate of the fourth list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (v) the first candidate of the fifth list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (vi) the first candidate of the sixth list by number of votes cast by shareholders;

a.4) if two or more lists are presented and only one of them is voted by at least 34% (thirty-four percent) of the share capital, candidates shall be allocated among the various lists as indicated below:

a.4.a) in the presence of two lists, the following candidates shall be elected: (i) the first 6 (six) candidates of the first list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (ii) the first 3 (three) candidates of the second list by number of votes expressed by shareholders;

a.4.b) in the presence of three lists, the following candidates shall be elected: (i) the first 5 (five) candidates of the first list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (ii) the first 3 (three) candidates of the second list by number of votes expressed by shareholders; (iii) the first candidate of the third list by number of votes expressed by shareholders;

a.4.c) in the presence of four lists, the following candidates shall be elected: (i) the first 5 (five) candidates of the first list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (ii) the first 2 (two) candidates of the second list by number of votes expressed by shareholders; (iii) the first candidate of the third list by number of votes expressed by shareholders; (iv) the first candidate of the fourth list by number of votes expressed by shareholders;

a.4.d) in the presence of five or more lists, the following candidates shall be elected: (i) the first 5 (five) candidates of the first list by number of votes cast by shareholders; (ii) the first candidate of the second list by number of votes expressed by shareholders;

(iii) the first candidate of the third list by number of votes expressed by shareholders; (iv) the first candidate of the fourth list by number of votes expressed by shareholders; (v) the first candidate of the fifth list by number of votes expressed by shareholders;

a.5) if two lists are voted by at least 34% of the capital and none of them reaches a percentage above 50% (fifty percent), the provisions of point a.3) above shall apply; a.6) if two lists are voted by at least 34% of the capital, one of which reaches a percentage above 50% (fifty percent), the provisions of point a.4) above shall apply.

If, in all cases provided in this point a), one or more lists obtain a number of votes above the percentage indicated in point a.1) above, but below 50% (fifty percent) of the share capital, for the purposes of the allocation of the directors to be elected: (i) only the list that received the most votes shall be taken into account; (ii) only the first candidate indicated in said list shall be elected; (iii) any remaining directors of said list based on the provisions of points a.3.a), a.3.b), a.3.c), a.3.d), a.3.e), a.4.a), a.4.b), a.4.c) and a.4.d) above, as referenced in accordance with points a.5) and a.6) above, shall be attributed to the first list by number of absolute votes, subject to the respective indications provided therein with reference to the attribution of the directors of the lists other than the first and the last.

b) if, as per the aforementioned appointment procedure, at least two members in possession of the independence requisites established by applicable legislation are not elected, the last of those elected taken from the list which has obtained the highest number of votes expressed by the shareholders after the first and which is not connected in any way, not event indirectly, with the shareholders who have presented or voted for this latter list shall have to be replaced by the first candidate listed subsequently on this list who has these requisites and, if following this replacement a member in possession of the independence requisites established by the applicable legislation still has to be elected, the last of those elected not in possession of these requisites taken from the list which has obtained the highest number of votes shall have to be replaced by the first candidate listed subsequently on this list who has these requisites;

c) if the Board of Directors elected as above does not permit the observance of the balance between genders envisaged by current legislation, the last members elected of the more represented gender, of the first list by number of votes cast by the shareholders, fall from office in the number necessary to ensure the observance of the requirement and are replaced by the first candidates not elected on the same list of the gender represented the least. In the absence of candidates of the less represented gender on the first list by number of votes cast by shareholders in a number sufficient to go ahead with replacement, the aforementioned criteria will apply to the successive lists progressively voted for the most from which the elected candidates have been taken. If, applying the above criteria, it is not however possible to identify suitable replacements, the shareholders' meeting supplements the body with the legal majorities, ensuring the satisfaction of the requirement of the balance between genders envisaged by current legislation;

d) the list voting appointment method envisaged above is applied in the sole case of complete renewal of the Directors; with regard to the appointment of Directors not appointed for any reason in accordance with the above procedure, the shareholders' meeting resolves with the legal majority in observance of the legislative requirements regarding gender representation;

this requisite also applies to co-opting carried out by the same Board of Directors as per applicable legislation.

If, due to resignation or for other reasons, more than half of the Directors appointed by the shareholders' meeting fall from office, the entire Board shall be understood to have fallen and the shareholders' meeting must be called immediately to re-appoint all the Directors.

Calling and holding of meetings of the Board of Directors

The meetings of the Board of Directors can be held outside Italy, provided that they are held in one of the member states of the European Union, and are called by the Chairman or at least two Directors, via registered letter, telegram, telex, fax or e-mail message, to be sent at least two days before the date established for the meeting.

In the event of the absence or unavailability of the Chairman, the Board is chaired by the Deputy Chairman or the most senior Director in age.

The Board may appoint a company Secretary, who can also be from outside the board members.

It is possible for Board Meetings to be held via teleconference and/or video-conference facilities, provided that all the participants can be identified and they are permitted to follow the discussion and intervene in real time with regard to the business being dealt with. These requirements having been satisfied, the Board Meeting is considered to be held in the location where the Chairman and also the Secretary to the meeting are found, so as to permit the drawing up and signing of the minutes in the related minutes' book.

Board meetings satisfy quorum requirements if - also in the absence of formal calling - all the Directors in office and all the Statutory Auditors are present.

- Article 13 -

Validity of board resolutions

With regard to the validity of the Board resolutions, the presence of the majority of the Directors in office is necessary.

Resolutions are adopted by means of the majority of those present and in the event equal votes are cast, the vote of whom-ever chairs the meeting prevails.

- Article 14 -

Powers of the management body

The Board of Directors has all the powers of ordinary and extraordinary business of the Company, with the exception of those specifically reserved by law to the shareholders' meeting.

Within the limits of the law, the Board of Directors may also appoint one or more Chief Executives, establishing the powers included in the sphere of those due to them and within the legal limits (Article 2381 of the Italian Civil Code).

The Board of Directors may, according to the legal forms, adopt any resolution concerning the adaptation of the Articles of Association to legislative provisions.

The Board of Directors:

(i) may, according to the legal forms, appoint one or more General Managers, Attorneys, establishing their related duties and powers;

(ii) appoints, upon the proposal of the Chief Executive Officer, and in any event having consulted the Board of Statutory Auditors on a mandatory basis, the Executive in charge of drawing up the Company's accounting documents, establishing the related duties and powers. The Executive in charge of drawing up the Company's accounting documents must have the good standing requisites envisaged for the Directors and have acquired significant professional experience with regard to administration and finance. The Executive remains in office for a three-year period or a shorter duration established at the time of appointment; he/she may be re-appointed.

The Executive in charge of drawing up the Company's accounting documents takes part in the meetings of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee, if established, which envisages the handling of the matters for which the same is responsible.

The Board of Directors may delegate its powers to an Executive Committee made up of some of its members. The Board of Directors must report quarterly to the Board of Statutory Auditors on the activities carried out and on the most significant economic, financial and equity transactions performed by the Company or the subsidiaries; in detail, they must report on transactions involving a potential conflict of interest, by means of a written report sent to the domicile of the auditors or via online transmission procedures.

Legal representation of the Company

The legal representation of the Company in dealings with third parties and before the legal authorities is due to the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the Deputy Chairman, if appointed, in the event of the absence and/or unavailability of the Chairman and any Chief Executive Officers, within the limits of the power granted them.

The effective exercise of the power of representation by the Deputy Chairman in itself bears witness to the absence or unavailability of the Chairman and exonerates third parties from any ascertainment or responsibility in this regard. In the event of the appointment of several Deputy Chairmen, the Board itself will determine the methods for replacing the Chairman.

- Article 16 -

Financial Statements

The accounting period ends on 31 (thirty-one) December of each year.

At the end of each accounting period, the management body draws up the financial statements comprising the balance sheet, income statement and explanatory notes, in observance of the provisions of the law.

- Article 17 -

Profits

The shareholders' meeting approves the financial statements and resolves with regard to the allocation of the profits, subject to allocation of 5% (five percent) of the annual profits to the legal reserve, until the same has reached one-fifth of the share capital.

- Article 18 -

Board of Statutory Auditors

The Board of Statutory Auditors is made up of three Statutory Auditors and two Alternate Auditors ensuring the balance between genders as per current legislation. The Statutory Auditors remain in office for a three-year period and may be re-appointed. The fall from office of the Statutory Auditors due to expiry of the term only becomes effective when the Board has been re-established. Pursuant to Article 1.2, letters b) and c) of the regulations pursuant to Italian Minister of Justice Decree No. 162 dated 30 March 2000, the sectors of activities and the matters pertaining to telecommunications, electronic communications in general, media, software and IT activities, as well as matters pertaining to private and administrative law disciplines, economic disciplines and those relating to the business organisation, are considered strictly pertinent to that of the Company.

Board of Statutory Auditors' meetings may also be held with the aid of telecommunications mediums, in observance of the formalities as per Article 12 (Calling and holding of Board Meetings) of these Articles of Association.

The shareholders' meeting which appoints the Statutory Auditors and the Chairman of the Board of Statutory Auditors establishes the emolument due to the same. The appointment of the Board of Statutory Auditors takes place on the basis of lists presented by the shareholders, in which five candidates must be indicated, three for the office of Statutory Auditor and two for the office of Alternate Auditor, listed by means of a consecutive number, in order of professional seniority and in observance of current legislation regarding balance between genders.

Each shareholder may submit, or jointly submit, one list only, even if via third parties or through trust companies. Each candidate may be present on one list only or be disqualified. Shareholders are only entitled to present lists if, alone or together with other shareholders, they represent at least the percentage of the shares with the right to vote during ordinary shareholders' meetings envisaged by applicable legislation, which shall be indicated in the notice for the calling of the meeting. The lists presented by the shareholders must be deposited, as will also be indicated in the notice of calling, at the Company's registered offices by the twenty-fifth day prior to the date of the meeting called to resolve on the appointment of the members of the Board of Statutory Auditors. If, at the expiry of the aforementioned deadline, just one list has been presented, or only lists presented by shareholders who are connected as per the applicable legislation, lists can be presented up to the third day after this date, and the investment percentage envisaged for the presentation of the lists is reduced by half.

Each list shall have to be accompanied by the information required by applicable legislation and indicate the identity of the shareholders who have presented the same, the total investment percentage owned and a certificate which proves the ownership of said investment, as well as a declaration of the shareholders other than those who hold, also jointly, a relative controlling or majority interest, bearing witness to the absence of the connecting relationships with the latter as envisaged by applicable legislation.

In-depth information on the personal and professional characteristics of the candidates must be provided at the bottom of the list presented by the shareholders, or attached to the same.

The declarations by means of which the individual candidates accept their candidature and declare, at their own liability, the inexistence of causes of ineligibility or incompatibility as well as the existence of the requisites of good standing and professionalism prescribed for the office by applicable legislation and the Articles of Association, must be filed together with each list.

Lists presented without observing the above instructions, shall be considered as not presented.

Each shareholder may vote for one list only, even if via third parties or through trust companies.

Those who cover the role of Statutory Auditor in five listed companies cannot undertake the office of Auditor in the Company. The Statutory Auditors can undertake other management and audit appointments within the limits established by applicable legislation.

At least one of the Statutory Auditors and at least one Alternate Auditor must be chosen from those listed on the official register of auditors with at least three years' experience in the auditing of accounts. Auditors failing to meet the aforementioned condition must have a total of at least three years' experience in specific company purpose-related duties. Specific company purpose-related duties are understood to be all those referable to the corporate purpose as per Article 3 (Corporate Purpose) in these Articles of Association and in any event those relating to the telecommunications sector.

They are elected as follows:

- a) two Statutory Auditors and one Alternate Auditor are elected from the list receiving the most votes, in the order in which they appear on said list;
- b) the third Statutory Auditor shall be the candidate for the related office in first place, among the Statutory Auditors, on the list which has received the most votes after the first, from among the lists presented and voted for by shareholders who are not connected, even indirectly, with the shareholders who have presented and voted for the list in first place due to number of votes;

c) the second Alternate Auditor shall be the candidate for the related office indicated as first, among the Alternate Auditors, on the same minority list indicated above.

In the event of equal votes between the lists presented and voted for by shareholders who are not connected, even indirectly, with the shareholders who have presented and voted for the list in first place due to number of votes, the candidate on the list which has been presented by shareholders in possession of the majority investment or, alternatively, by the highest number of shareholders, shall be elected.

The chairmanship of the Board of Statutory Auditors goes to the candidate for the office of Statutory Auditor in first place on the list which has received the most votes after the first, from among the lists presented and voted for by shareholders who are not connected, even indirectly, with the shareholders who have presented and voted for the list in first place due to number of votes;

c) the second Alternate auditor will be the candidate to the respective role indicated in first place, among the Alternate Auditors, in the same minority list referred to in the previous point.

In the event of equal votes between the lists presented and voted for by shareholders who are not connected, even indirectly, with the shareholders who have presented and voted for the list in first place due to number of votes, the candidate on the list which has been presented by shareholders in possession of the majority investment or, alternatively, by the highest number of shareholders, shall be elected.

The chairmanship of the Board of Statutory Auditors goes to the candidate for the office of Statutory Auditor in first place on the list which has received the most votes after the first, from among the lists presented and voted for by shareholders who are not connected, even indirectly, with the shareholders who have presented and voted for the list in first place due to number of votes.

If just one list is presented, the first three candidates in consecutive order shall be elected Statutory Auditors by majority, and the fourth and fifth candidates shall be appointed Alternate Auditors; the chairmanship of the Board of Statutory Auditors will go to the first candidate.

If the Board of Statutory Auditors elected as above does not permit the observance of the balance between genders envisaged by current legislation, the last members elected from the majority list of the gender represented the most fall from office in the number necessary to ensure the observance of the requirement and are replaced by the first candidates not elected on the same list of the gender represented the least.

In the absence of candidates of the gender represented the least on the majority list in a number sufficient to go ahead with replacement, the aforementioned criteria will apply to the minority lists progressively voted for the most from which the elected candidates have been taken. If, applying the above criteria, it is not however possible to identify suitable replacements, the shareholders' meeting supplements the body with the legal majorities, ensuring the satisfaction of the requirement of the balance between genders envisaged by current legislation.

In the event of early termination of a Statutory Auditor from office, the same shall be replaced by the Alternate Auditor elected from among the candidates belonging to the same list as the Auditor no longer in office in observance of current legislation regarding balance between genders.

In observance of current legislation regarding the balance between genders, the shareholders' meeting takes steps to appoint the Statutory Auditors and Alternate Auditors necessary for supplementing the Board of Statutory Auditors following early termination from office, as follows:

a) if steps must be taken to replace Auditors elected from the majority list, the appointment takes place by majority vote, choosing from among the candidates on the list to which the Auditors to be replaced belonged, who at least ten days before the date fixed for the shareholders' meeting in first calling have confirmed their candidature, together with the declarations relating to the inexistence of causes of ineligibility or incompatibility, as well as the existence of the requisites of good standing and professionalism prescribed for the office by applicable legislation and the Articles of Association;

b) if, by contrast, steps must be taken to replace the Statutory Auditor appointed by the minority, the shareholders' meeting shall replace the same by majority vote, choosing from among the candidates on the list to which the Auditor to be replaced belonged, who at least ten days before the date fixed for the shareholders' meeting in first calling have confirmed their candidature, together with the declarations relating to the inexistence of causes of ineligibility or incompatibility, as well as the existence of the requisites of good standing and professionalism prescribed for the office by applicable legislation and the Articles of Association.

The new Auditors appointed fall from office together with those already in office.

The outgoing Auditors may be re-appointed.

Transactions with related parties

The Company approves the transactions with related parties in compliance with the legal and regulatory provisions in force, as well as its article of association provisions and the procedures adopted in this regard by the Company. The internal procedures adopted by the Company in relation to transactions with related parties may envisage that the Board of Directors approves the transactions of greatest importance despite the contrary opinion of the independent directors, provided that the performance of these transactions is authorised, as per Article 2364.1.5 of the Italian Civil Code, by the shareholders' meeting.

In the above circumstances, as well as in the cases where a resolution proposal to be submitted to the shareholders' meeting in relation to a significant transaction is approved in the presence of the contrary opinion of the independent directors, the meeting resolves with the majorities envisaged by law provided that, if the unrelated shareholders present during the meeting represent at least 10% of the share capital with the right to vote, the aforementioned legal majorities are achieved with the favourable vote of the majority of the unrelated shareholders voting during the meeting. The internal procedures adopted by the Company in relation to transactions with related parties may envisage the exclusion from their sphere of application of urgent transactions, also being the responsibility of the shareholders' meeting, within the limits permitted by applicable legal and regulatory provisions.
